Inc. Magazine Ranks ICR Among the Nations' Fastest-Growing Businesses

Westport, CT – September 4, 2007 – Inc. magazine has ranked ICR (www.icrinc.com), among the nation's 5,000 fastest-growing private companies. The ranking, known as the Inc. 5,000, is an extension of Inc. magazine's annual Inc. 500 list and was developed to identify a larger group of growing businesses that, taken as a whole, represent the backbone of the U.S. economy. ICR Inc., a leading financial communications firm specializing in investor relations and corporate communications, placed in the ranking's top third, at number 1567.

"ICR's strategy of combining in-depth sector knowledge with high-level capital markets and corporate communications experience continues to be the driving force behind our strong growth and success," said Thomas M. Ryan, ICR's co-CEO. "We are pleased and honored to be part of such an impressive group of companies. This notable distinction is a testament to the hard work and dedication of all our team members."

The 2007 Inc. 5,000 measures revenue growth from 2003 through 2006. To qualify, companies had to be U.S.-based and privately held, independent – not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies – as of December 31, 2006, and have had at least $200,000 in revenue in 2003, and $2 million in 2006. The entire list can be found online at www.icrinc.com/5000

"The Inc. 5,000 provides the most comprehensive look ever at the most important part of the economy – the entrepreneurial part," said Inc. 5,000 Project Manager Jim Melloan.
